

This Is the Star by Joyce Dunbar

Scripted by Mrs. Brown

Narrator 1

Narrator 5

Narrator 9

Narrator 2

Narrator 6

Narrator 10

Narrator 3

Narrator 7

Narrator 4

Narrator 8

Narrator 1: This is the star in the sky.

Narrator 2: These are the shepherds watching by night

Narrator 1: That saw the star in the sky.

Narrator 3: This is the angel shining bright

Narrator 2: Who came to the shepherds watching by night.

Narrator 1: That saw the star in the sky.

Narrator 4: This is the donkey with precious load trudging
the long and weary road,

Narrator 3: Looked on by the angel shining bright

Narrator 2: Who came to the shepherds watching by night

Narrator 1: That saw the star in the sky.

Narrator 5: This is the inn where the only room was a stable out in the lamplit gloom

Narrator 4: For the donkey and his precious load who
trudged the long and weary road,

Narrator 3: Looked on by the angel shining bright

Narrator 2: Who came to the shepherds watching by night

Narrator 1: That saw the star in the sky.

Narrator 6: This is the ox, hungry, eating the grass, who saw such wonders come to pass

Narrator 5: At the darkened inn where the only room was a stable out in the lamplit gloom

Narrator 4: For the donkey and his precious load who
trudged the long and weary road,

Narrator 3: Looked on by the angel shining bright

Narrator 2: Who came to the shepherds watching by night

Narrator 1: That saw the star in the sky.

Narrator 7: This is the manger warm with hay wherein a newborn baby lay.

Narrator 6: This the ox, hungry, eating the grass who saw these wonders come to pass

Narrator 5: At the darkened inn where the only room was a stable out in the lamplit gloom

Narrator 4: For the donkey and his precious load who trudged the long and weary road,

Narrator 3: Looked on by the angel shining bright

Narrator 2: Who came to the shepherds watching by night

Narrator 1: That saw the star in the sky.

Narrator 8: This is the gold and fragrant myrrh and frankincense, the gifts that were

Narrator 7: Placed by the manger warm with hay wherein a newborn baby lay.

Narrator 6: This the ox, hungry, eating the grass who saw these wonders come to pass

Narrator 5: At the darkened inn where the only room was a stable out in the lamplit gloom

Narrator 4: For the donkey and his precious load who
trudged the long and weary road,

Narrator 3: Looked on by the angel shining bright

Narrator 2: Who came to the shepherds watching by night

Narrator 1: That saw the star in the sky.

Narrator 9: These are the wise men come from afar who also saw and followed the star,

Narrator 8: Bearing the gold and fragrant myrrh and frankincense, the gifts that were

Narrator 7: Placed by the manger warm with hay wherein a newborn baby lay.

Narrator 6: This the ox, hungry, eating the grass who saw these wonders come to pass

Narrator 5: At the darkened inn where the only room was a
stable out in the lamplit gloom

Narrator 4: For the donkey and his precious load who
trudged the long and weary road,

Narrator 3: Looked on by the angel shining bright

Narrator 2: Who came to the shepherds watching by night

Narrator 1: That saw the star in the sky.

Narrator 10: This is the child that was born. This is the Christ child born to be king while hosts of heavenly angels sing.

Narrator 9: These are the wise men come from afar who also saw and followed the star,

Narrator 8: Bearing the gold and fragrant myrrh and frankincense, the gifts that were

Narrator 7: Placed by the manger warm with hay wherein a newborn baby lay.

Narrator 6: This the ox, hungry, eating the grass who saw these wonders come to pass

Narrator 5: At the darkened inn where the only room was a stable out in the lamplit gloom

Narrator 4: For the donkey and his precious load who trudged the long and weary road,

Narrator 3: Looked on by the angel shining bright

Narrator 2: Who came to the shepherds watching by night

Narrator 1: That saw the star in the sky.

All: Still shines the star in the sky.